

Montreal Serenade: A Symphony of Love

(Verse 1)

In the city of Montreal, where dreams take flight,
A beacon of hope in the depths of the night.
Where the cross on Mount Royal pierces the sky,
And love's tender whispers never say goodbye.

(Chorus)

Montreal, oh Montreal, a light in the darkened world,
Where hearts find solace, where passions unfurl.
Beneath the stars, our love shall dance and twirl,
In the embrace of Montreal, our eternal pearl.

(Verse 2)

At St. Joseph's Oratory, we find sanctuary,
In each other's arms, lost in reverie.
Through trials and triumphs, our love will soar,
Like the spires of Notre Dame, forevermore.

(Chorus)

Montreal, oh Montreal, a light in the darkened world,
Where hearts find solace, where passions unfurl.
Beneath the stars, our love shall dance and twirl,
In the embrace of Montreal, our eternal pearl.

(Bridge)

From the cobblestone streets to the river's flow,
In Montreal's embrace, our love will grow.
Through every season, through sun and snow,
In this city of love, our hearts will glow.

(Chorus)

Montreal, oh Montreal, a light in the darkened world,
Where hearts find solace, where passions unfurl.
Beneath the stars, our love shall dance and twirl,
In the embrace of Montreal, our eternal pearl.

(Outro)

So let's raise our voices, let our love unfurl,
In the enchanting embrace of Montreal, our eternal pearl.
